It comes just days after Prime Minister Theresa May announced the event is to be held in Parliament today. But organisers of the Anarchist Federation - a group opposed to any nation using military force - say they are planning a protest at Westminster today, just before the event starts. They say their aim is to coincide with the arrival of EU chief Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier, who it is believed will be at the conference. The Federation claims: "We are pleased to announce that in addition to our planned protest on May 5th, we will be holding another protest at Westminster." A quote from the group went on: "Theresa May's visit to the Chequers meeting is just the latest in a series of incendiary shows of force against migrants and migrants' rights. "Given the continued persecution of migrants in the UK, EU and EU member states, and given the upcoming May 5th demonstration to coincide with the EU chief Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier's arrival, we are delighted to be able to hold a local and accessible protest." The Anarchists Federation have produced a calendar which they say will indicate where the protests will take place. It will take place today and on May 5, 11, 18, and 25. Others will take place on May 11 and 25, and June 26. Theresa May is due to arrive at the conference to give opening remarks at the Enterprise Centre in Westminster on Thursday morning. The conference, which will include Dutch MEP Sophie In't Veld and German MEP Ulrike Lunacek, will be running between Thursday and Sunday. Mr Barnier will be announcing details on Brexit negotiations tomorrow. EU chief Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier.
